Healing Waters Detox Foot Bath

The Ionic Foot Detox cleanse is a professional detoxification treatment that helps with total body purification and enables the body to heal itself. It purges the body of toxins, chemicals, radiation, pollution, synthetics, and other foreign material. Your body will detoxify while comfortably seated with your feet in a tub of water. The process uses positive and negative ions to gently draw out toxins from the body. You'll notice the water quickly changing color depending on the type of impurities that are being released.

$80

Zyto Scan & 30 minute consultation

The ZYTO bio scan relies on skin response technology similar to what is utilized in lie detector testing. You put your hand on an electronic hand cradle, and a scan measures numerous bodily responses to digital stimuli given electronically. Responses read include body chemistry, organ health, and potential stressors like chemicals, foods, pollens, viruses, bacteria, etcetera.
